DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The listing of references in the Search Report is not considered to be an information disclosure statement (IDS) complying with 37 CFR 1.98. 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2) requires a legible copy of: (1) each foreign patent; (2) each publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; (3) for each cited pending U.S. application, the application specification including claims, and any drawing of the application, or that portion of the application which caused it to be listed including any claims directed to that portion, unless the cited pending U.S. application is stored in the Image File Wrapper (IFW) system; and (4) all other information, or that portion which caused it to be listed. In addition, each IDS must include a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office (see 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1) and (b)), and MPEP § 609.04(a), subsection I. states, "the list ... must be submitted on a separate paper." Therefore, the references cited in the Search Report have not been considered. Applicant is advised that the date of submission of any item of information or any missing element(s) will be the date of submission for purposes of determining compliance with the requirements based on the time of filing the IDS, including all "statement" requirements of 37 CFR 1.97(e). See MPEP § 609.05(a).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The claims are indefinite because an opening is just a space defined by a wall, therefore it is unclear how an opening can be canted in any direction.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Timmermans (4,430,081). Timmermans discloses a subcutaneous port comprising a port corpus (12) comprising an inlet defining an opening, an outlet having an opening, a chamber, the inlet and the outlet comprising first and second connecting members (threads), a septum (20,21,22), a removable septum retainer (17) comprising a third connecting member (threads) being removably engaged with the first connecting member, a removable conus (32) comprising an inlet and outlet and a fourth connecting member (threads), the port corpus inlet opening being canted inwardly (a space can be interpreted as being canted in any direction), further comprising a fifth connecting member (47) and a removable hollow casing (46). It is the Examiner's position that the method of assembling the device of Timmermans inherently meets the limitation disclosed by the Applicant.

Claims 1-2, 16, 18, 20-22, and 28-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Leveen (3,910,283). Leveen discloses a subcutaneous port comprising a port corpus (1) comprising an inlet defining an opening, an outlet having an opening, a chamber, the inlet and the outlet comprising first and second connecting members (threads), a septum (5), a removable septum retainer (3) comprising a third connecting member (threads) being removably engaged with the first connecting member, a removable conus (12) comprising an inlet and outlet and a fourth connecting member (threads), the port corpus inlet opening being canted inwardly (a space can be interpreted as being canted in any direction). It is the Examiner's position that the method of assembling the device of Leveen inherently meets the limitation disclosed by the Applicant.

Claims 1-2, 16, 18, 20-22, and 28-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ensminger (5,263,930). Ensminger discloses a subcutaneous port comprising a port corpus (12) comprising an inlet defining an opening, an outlet having an opening, a chamber, the inlet and the outlet comprising first and second connecting members (threads), a septum (56), a removable septum retainer (58) comprising a third connecting member (threads) being removably engaged with the first connecting member, a removable conus (40) comprising an inlet and outlet and a fourth connecting member (threads), the port corpus inlet opening being canted inwardly (a space can be interpreted as being canted in any direction). It is the Examiner's position that the method of assembling the device of Ensminger inherently meets the limitation disclosed by the Applicant.
